PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Operations professional who finds broken processes, works out the real cause, and fixes them personally rather than escalating them. At Diamond Group of Industries, I redesigned the ordering model behind a 400+ SKU inventory, cutting lead time by roughly 70% and improving inventory accuracy by roughly 60%. I also rebuilt a nationwide exhibition operation, moving setup timing and swapping untrained labor for trained staff, traveling to every city until it stuck. I now handle procurement at Transsion Holdings using SAP, and already use AI tools like Claude, ChatGPT and Make.com in my own work. Looking to own a problem end to end, not a title.
